

DANIYELLA

COULD IT BE

Could it be I'm falling? Could it be for you?
Maybe you're that someone just for me
'Cause everywhere I'm going is anywhere I've been
And I don't want to fail again

I've seen a lot of faces, seen a lot of pain
The scars are written deep inside my soul
I'm done with feeling lonely I'm through with wasting time
All I want is someone to call mine

In your eyes there's a light
I wonder if you see me, I hope I'll make it right
For a sign, for a word
I will wait forever for a moment to be heard
In your heart is the place that I long to be Could it be you saved a spot for me

I've been running circles, got lost along the way
Misery is one thing that I know
With every tear I cried I headed further on to you
Could it be I finally made it through?

CHORUS

I've been searching the world for you
And on the edge of loss I carried on
Could it be I found you?
Could it be you've been here all along?
