LIFE AT ONE GLANCE

Did you ever take time to watch the sunrise?
Or did you notice the colours of blue?
Did you ever walk down to the seaside at night
And felt the warm wind over you?

Then you're over crying for nothing
There is more than you see at one glance
All the beauty of life is right there at your sight
And the choice lies keen in your hands

Have you lingered, followed the birds fly?
Scent a rose or heard grasshoppers leap?
Have you ever made pictures from clouds in the sky
Or felt the soft sand under your feet ?

CHORUS

Can you tell by the taste of a teardrop
If it's falling from laughter or pain?

Are you able to hear all the sounds of one word
And can a whisper drive you insane

Or are the heaven's just blue once again....
