

DANIYELLA

ONE TIME TOO MANY

She was taken in by con man
Smart and handsome, blond hair, blue eyes - a devil in disguise
He gave her all that she'd been needin'
She couldn't wait to share his life
But when the truth kissed her awake with her dignity at stake
She made a choice....

She lost her heart one time too many
When she fell there wasn't anywhere to turn
But she grew stronger...
Because she found her trust to love somebody
Something she'd been searching for a long and lonesome time

She fell in love with a con man
Young and artful, her mind was numb – she'd better run
The walls came down when she discovered
That she was not the only one
And when fate exposed the lie with no mercy left inside
She made a choice...

CHORUS

She packed his bags and wiped off all the memories he had left
Just in time – just in time to save her piece of pride.....
