

DANIYELLA

WHY NOT NOW

Doesn't anyone feel what I feel?
Doesn't anyone see what I see?
Isn't anywhere better than nowhere at all?
Isn't half of it more than nothing?
Doesn't part of it all mean something?
Can't we even imagine a world for all?

Life is a game wearing blinders
And it's easy believing in fake
But difference is simple to make

Why not now – why not always? Why not every single day?
Why not here – why not everywhere we turn?
Just one look, just one moment - just one hand to make a start!
Why not us – why not someone in the crowd?
Tell me why not now!

Will we ever confide in someone?
Just in time before we come undone
'Cause we're no longer standing on holy ground

Life is a game wearing blinders
And it's easy believing in fake
But difference is simple to make

CHORUS

Is it too much to ask for or too much to take
What is the cause for denial
Only one doubt puts the future in charge of a lie

CHORUS
